

ART DECO FRIDAYS

Legion of Honor

100 34th Ave, Lincoln Park
San Francisco

5:30–8:45 pm every Friday, April 9 through July 2, 2004

In celebration of Art Deco: 1910–1939, the Legion of Honor will remain open to the public every Friday evening for live music, lectures, film, fashion shows, cabaret performances, dance lessons, docents in the galleries, dining in the cafe, and other exhibition-related programs. No additional charge after museum admission, and no reservations. Come in full Deco regalia! Our thanks to the Art Deco Society of California for helping to organize these events.

Museum admission: $8/adults, $6/seniors, $5/teens, free for children under 12 years of age, free for museum members. Surcharge of $7.00 per person (excluding members) to view the exhibition Art Deco: 1910–1939. For more information call 415-682-2481.

April 9 Fashions of Yesteryear

6:00–8:30 pm Musical performance of the era by Sara Klotz de Aguilar
Fashion show of vintage styles. Artist demonstrations. No-host martini bar available

April 16 Life is a Cabaret

6:00–7:00 pm Lecture: "The Origins of Art Deco," by Michael Crowe, architectural historian and author
7:15–8:30 pm "Girlkulture," a saucy, risqué cabaret of the Art Deco era, presented by the Oakland Lyric Opera

April 23 Deco College Night

Lectures:

6:00–7:00 pm "The Androgynous Dandy: An Art Deco Icon," by Alice Jurow
7:15–8:15 pm "Erte: Artist, Genius, Drag Queen," by Stephan
6:30–8:30 pm Musical performance by Le Jazz Hot. Live model sketching by City College of San Francisco, San Francisco State University student art exhibition, and more!

April 30 An Evening of Silent Films with the Sprocket Ensemble

Calling All Girls, Fatty and Mable Go to the World's Fair, Busby Berkeley Retrospective, and films featuring Betty Boop and Felix the Cat. Accompanied by music of the Sprocket Ensemble led by Nick Phelps

May 7 The Music of Yesteryear

The Jesters Vocal Trio: A rare and tasty treat—faithful re-creations of great vocal harmony groups performing classic American popular music from the 20s and 30s alongside dazzling original interpretations and compositions in the authentic styles. Pianist Fred Hodges also performing throughout the evening. Artist demonstrations. No-host martini bar available

May 14 Mexico's Influence on the Art Deco Movement

Lectures:

6:00–6:45 pm “From Art Deco to Arte Chicano: The Chicization of Mexican Calendar Art,” by Tere Romo, curator, The Mexican Museum

7:00–7:30 pm “Diego Rivera in San Francisco, 1930–1940,” by Masha Zakheim, scholar of the art of San Francisco, 1930s. Live music. Artist demonstrations. Cash bar available

May 21 Harlem meets Hollywood

5:30–6:00 pm Film “Hughes Dream Harlem”

6:00–7:00 pm Lecture “From Harlem to Hollywood: The Nicholas Brothers: Dancers Extraordinaire,” Bonnie Weiss, theater educator, writer, radio and cabaret producer

7:15–8:30 pm Cabaret performance by Kim Nalley

May 28 Martini Night

Musical performance of the era by the Martini Brothers Band and Mr. Rick's Martini Club are the focus for this evening. Learn about the origins of the martini. Artist demonstrations. No-host martini bar available

June 4, 11, 18, 25 Music and Dance Styles of the Art Deco Period

Lectures: 5:30–6:30 pm

June 4: “Tamara de Lempicka: A Self-Portrait as Modern Woman Artist,” by Paula Birnbaum, art historian, USF

June 11: “Selling Good Design: Promoting the Early Modern Interior,” by Marilyn Friedman, design historian, New York City

June 18: “Art Deco: An Automotive Expression,” John Hart, curator, Black Hawk Museum
Automobiles of the era will be on view in front of the museum from 3:00–6:00 pm.

June 25: “Art Deco Architecture: It's Everywhere,” by Michael Crowe, architectural historian and author

6:30–8:30 pm Musical performance and dance lessons in the Legion Cafe with the San Francisco Starlight Orchestra and the Bay Area's premiere dance hostess, Cynthia Glinka. Bring your dancing shoes! Artist demonstrations. No-host martini bar available

July 2 Havana Deco Night

5:30–6:30 pm Lecture “Cocktail Time in Cuba: An Exploration of the Architecture and Social Customs of the Art Deco Era in Havana, Cuba,” Mitzi Mogul, historic consultant

6:30–8:30 pm Music of Cuba performed by The John Santos Quartet. Artist demonstrations. No-host Mojito bar available